Robbery of Rite Aid Pharmacy

On October 2, 2012 at approximately 8:00 p.m. Beaverton Police Officers were dispatched to the Rite Aid Pharmacy located at 11190 SW Barnes Rd on a robbery call. The suspect presented a note that ordered the employees give him specific prescription medications. These prescription medications were given to the suspect, he then left the store and police were called.

When officers arrived the suspect was described as a white male adult, 40 years of age, 6' tall, 150 pounds, wearing a plaid shirt, baseball cap and glasses.

At approximately 8:08 p.m. Beaverton Police Officers located the suspect on 117th Ave. near SW Corby Dr. The suspect was taken into custody without incident and had refused to identify himself.

The suspect was later identified as John Eric Emmingham 46 years of age. Emmingham was taken to the Washington County Jail and lodged on the charge of Robbery II. Detectives believe that Emmingham may be a suspect in other pharmacy robberies and are investigating those cases.
